

BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH HISTORICAL FACTS

DID YOU KNOW...?

- On December 1, 1957 Amherstview became a mission and the first Mass was celebrated at St. Joseph Provincial House
- Sunday Masses continued to be held in the chapel at St. Joseph Provincial House for the people of the Amherstview area until 1980
- On December 8, 1957 Archbishop O'Sullivan blessed and formally opened "Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School", with two classrooms and an enrolment of 59 students
- Amherstview became a parish in September, 1968 and was named "Blessed Sacrament Parish", with St. Linus parish as a mission
- By 1974, Blessed Sacrament Parish was the largest single-priest pastorate in the Archdiocese
- In May, 1979 it was clear that a church had to be built, and a Building Committee was formed, chaired by John Murphy
- Architects Polson, Thompson, Laframboise & Mallett were hired to develop plans for the new church [see sketch on right]
- Kehoe Construction Ltd. was awarded the contract to build the new church for $500,000 on January 21, 1980
- In February, 1980 the sod was turned and parish volunteers canvassed homes in the Amherstview area to raise funds to build the church
- Building began and continued through the year, then on December 8, 1980 Blessed Sacrament Church was dedicated by Archbishop Wilhelm
- In the spring of 1982, Kingston artist Fred Schoenberger painted a 28 ft. x 20 ft. mural over the altar, depicting the Crucifixion and Resurrection
- The bell was installed in 1983
- Fred Schoenberger was again called upon in 1984 to design and paint stained glass windows that would replace the plain glass that existed. Each of the stained glass windows depicts a theme from the Bible, centering on Adam and Eve, Moses, Abraham and David
- In 1985 the first Parish Directory was published
- On March 11, 1992 the final mortgage payment was made on the church and the Parish celebrated with a mortgage-burning ceremony on June 14, 1992
- On October 3, 1993 the Parish celebrated its Silver Jubilee, with Archbishop F.J. Spence presiding
- Renovations in 1995 included a steel roof and a lift for wheelchair access

- In 1995 the Blessed Sacrament Knights of Columbus and Catholic Women's League Amherstview chapters were founded
- Renovations in 1998 included redecoration of the church, new flooring, a redesign of the sanctuary and kitchen renovations in the church hall
- In 2000, as part of the Centennial Year activities, the second Parish Directory was published
- In 2001 a World Youth Day committee was formed and two young people from the parish represented Blessed Sacrament at World Youth Day
- Air conditioning was installed in July, 2006
- Blessed Sacrament Parish web site was launched December 31, 2006
- In May, 2007 the Blessed Sacrament Knights of Columbus assumed the task of coordinating the annual Food Blitz for Amherstview, Odessa and Bath
- In February, 2008 the CWL introduced the "Adopt-a-Soldier" campaign (changed to "Project Homeland" in 2009) to provide items to local military personnel stationed overseas
- The first annual Bible Summer School was organized in July, 2008
- On September 22, 2008 the parish celebrated its 40th anniversary as a Parish
- In September, 2008 a new refrigerator was purchased for the hall kitchen
- In October, 2008 the "Pennies for Pesos" campaign was launched in aid of the San José de Ocoa Mission in the Dominican Republic; this very successful campaign was adopted by schools and other councils in the region
- In 2009 the church sound system was updated and enhanced
- On June 27, 2009 the parish celebrated Rev. Michael Reed's 60th birthday with a pot luck dinner and entertainment
- In August, 2009 a privacy fence was built around part of the residence by members of the Knights of Columbus using funds donated by Knights and CWL
- In October, 2009 a door was installed in the residence to allow entry directly into the fenced privacy area
- In October, 2009 a new furnace was installed in the church; funds were raised from parishioners, the Knights of Columbus and the CWL
- In November, 2009 a sanctuary lamp was donated from the chapel of the Religious Hospitallers of St. Joseph
- On November 14, 2010 the CWL celebrated its 15th anniversary with cake and a display of CWL activities over the years
- On November 10, 2011 Rev. Michael Reed took a leave of absence and was replaced with a temporary administrator, Deacon Don DiRocco
- On July 25, 2012 Rev. Stan Alanen became our 10th parish priest
- In July, 2012 Blessed Sacrament was clustered with St. Bartholomew (Amherst Island) and St. Linus (Bath)
- In August, 2012 many items were obtained for the hall and kitchen from the RHSJ sale

- A new lift into the church hall was installed on August 15, 2012
- In November, 2012 a garage was built for the priest's car, constructed mainly by Knights of Columbus, under the direction of Gerry Splinter
- In December, 2012 the Blessed Sacrament website was re-launched (webmaster Shirley McDonald)
- On January 14, 2013, a half wall was installed between the music ministry and the congregation
- A cabinet for holy oils was built and installed by Mike Shanks in 2013
- A cabinet for the CWL was built and installed in the hall by Gordon McDonald in May, 2013

OUR PARISH PRIESTS...

1957 - 1968	Rev. Walter Joseph Lynett
1968 - 1969	Rev. William Wiley
1969 - 1972	Rev. Edwin McSherry
1972 - 1975	Msgr. Arthur James Welsh
1975 - 1984	Rev. Edward H. Barrett	(1981: Associate Rev. Robert Chisholm)
1984 - 1990	Msgr. Donald Patrick Clement
1990 - 1994	Rev. Raymond Gerard Shannon	(1991 – 1997: Associate Rev. Allan Peterkin)
1994 - 2005	Rev. John Francis Grainger
2005 - 2012	Rev. Michael Anthony Reed
2012 - present	Rev. Stan Alanen

...AND OUR DEACONS...

1993 - 1994	Dr. Philip Carney
1995 - 1999	John Ezard
2011 - 2012	Don DiRocco

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HAVE MADE THIS JOURNEY WITH US!