Summary of Fr. Americo's homily - This Sunday in the Gospel we hear the call of Jesus to become his followers. This is no easy invitation but an important request for us to be his disciples: "If anyone wants to become my follower, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." These words of Jesus are the center of Christian discipleship. To be his disciple is to walk the path of the cross. It is to lose oneself for the sake of the Kingdom. It is to commit oneself not to self-preservation but to self-sacrifice for God and others.

Father Americo's Homilies

Available Weekly: Father Santos is providing us with copies of his Homily weekly, in order for us to read and reflect on the Sunday Readings and the Gospel. Please take home a copy - available from greeters/tables and on our website at:
