Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

With the feast of the Baptism of the Lord we have entered into the liturgical time that we call "ordinary." On this second Sunday, the Gospel presents to us the scene of the meeting between Jesus and John the Baptist at the Jordan River. The narrator is the eye witness, John the Evangelist, who, before he was a disciple of Jesus was a disciple of the Baptist, together with his brother James, with Simon and Andrew, all are from Galilee, all are fisherman. So, John the Baptist sees Jesus, who steps forward from the crowd and, inspired from above, sees in Jesus the one sent by God. For this, reason he points him out with these words: "Behold the lamb of God, he who takes away the sin of the world!" (John 1:29).

Church Chuckles –

You know you are getting older when...

- 1) it feels like the morning after, but you did not go anywhere last night.
- 2) You turn out the lights for economic reasons rather than romantic ones
- 3) You get exercise acting as a pallbearer for your friends who exercise
- 4) You have "DÉJÀ VU" Alzheimer's because you think "I've forgotten this before....."
- 5) You spend a lot of time thinking about the thermostat
