Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

The month of November is dedicated to Souls in Purgatory.

Prayer Quilts: As small hand tied quilts are made, a silent prayer is said for someone in special need. If someone you know is facing a health or personal issue and would like a prayer quilt, please contact Mary Dupel at (613) 389-6104. There is no charge for these quilts.

Misals: The 2018 Missals have arrived and they are set them out for sale on the table in the Church.

Parish Prayer Network: Thank you to all who agreed to join our parish prayer network... every day, over 50 parishioners will be praying for you, for our parish and for special intentions. If you have an intention or if you know of someone in need, please call the parish office to have the prayer network pray for your request (please specify if they are deceased or living). Also, if you want to join the prayer network, call the parish office.

Holy Communion: Beginning on the 1st Sunday in Advent (November 27) Fr. Shea will be providing an offering from the Chalice, the blood of Jesus, in addition to the offering of the host, the body of Jesus, for those who wish to receive it. In the meantime, the logistics to ensure a smooth delivery of this offering will be developed. We also need some parishioners to volunteer to serve this new offering. Training will be provided. If you wish to volunteer, please contact Steve Quinn or any member of Parish Council.

Remembrance Day Celebration: The Knights of Columbus, and The Royal Canadian Legion, invite you to attend their annual Remembrance Day Service, at St. Mary's Cemetery, 718 Division Street, Kingston, on Sunday, November 5, 2017, 1:45. All are welcome.

Liturgy Conference: The Archdiocesan Liturgy Commission invites you to the Liturgy Conference on November 24th and 25th, at the Providence Spirituality Centre in Kingston. This year's conference will focus on the words we hear at each Mass: "...My Sacrifice and Yours...". Fr. John Hibbard, the presenter, will help us to better understand; How Is the Mass a Sacrifice? What Do We Bring and Offer? Spiritual and Symbolic Elements of a Sacrifice. The Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving: The Action of the Eucharistic Prayer.
