Sunday Reflection: September 12th

“Whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.” To do this, we need to set our minds on God’s merciful and loving ways of seeing and doing things. We are “encouraged by the Holy Spirit to follow Jesus in greater faith and trust, to experience the mercy and love of God in our hearts, and to find meaning and purpose in our service to a broken world” (Living with Christ). If we do this, we will certainly save our life and enter into the Kingdom of God.

Our Lady of Sorrows

The month of September is dedicated to Our Lady of Sorrows, whose memorial the Church celebrates on September 15th. September falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time.
